DeRadicalisation
in Europe and Beyond: Detect, Resolve, Reintegrate

The screenshot shows the D.Rad project website. At the top left is the 'D.Rad' logo and the text 'DeRadicalisation in Europe and Beyond: Detect, Resolve, Reintegrate' next to the European Union flag. A navigation menu includes 'ABOUT', 'TEAM', 'PUBLICATIONS', 'EVENTS', and 'BLOG'. The main content area features a large image of colorful sticky notes on a wall. Below the image is the heading 'Detect, Resolve, Re-integrate' followed by a paragraph of text: 'D.Rad is a comparative study of radicalisation and polarisation in Europe and beyond. It aims to identify the actors, networks, and wider social contexts driving radicalisation, particularly among young people in urban and peri-urban areas. D.Rad conceptualises this through the I-GAP spectrum (injustice-grievance-alienation-polarisation) with the goal of moving towards measurable evaluations of de-radicalisation programmes. Our intention is to identify the building blocks of radicalisation, which include a sense of being...'. A pink 'LEARN MORE' button is positioned below the text. At the bottom of the page, there are two sections: 'Latest Blogs' and 'Events'.
