

ELFA

English as a Lingua Franca in Academic Settings

ELFA is a research project in the Department of English at Tampere University. The aim is to investigate academic discourses in intercultural contexts, using English as a lingua franca. The project compiles a database of spoken discourse, which will be transcribed and stored in electronic form.

The recorded material will be used for research purposes only. Proper names and other identifying information will not be made public.

I hereby give my consent to be audiotaped:

Yes _____ No _____

Signature

If you have any questions or enquiries, please contact:

Anna Mauranen

E-mail: anna.mauranen@uta.fi

Telephone: +358-3-2156 127

Address: School of Modern Languages and Translations Studies / Anna Mauranen
FIN-33014 University of Tampere Finland