

Invitation to the First ReNEW Emerging Scholars Day

Copenhagen Business School, 5 March 2019

The first ReNEW Emerging Scholars Day will be held at Copenhagen Business School on 5 March 2019, preceding the 3rd Nordic Challenges Conference.

This multidisciplinary training day welcomes applications from PhD candidates and Post-docs, both affiliates of a ReNEW university and external academics working on Nordic topics.

The Emerging Scholars Day includes a key note lecture by prof Kazimierz Musiał on current trends in higher education, discussions on how to utilise the ReNEW framework in order to enhance academic excellence among young scholars, and poster sessions facilitating knowledge exchange.

Participants are requested to present a poster about their research at the meeting. The poster will be exhibited during the three days of the Nordic Challenges Conference.

For selected applicants, participation in the Emerging Scholars Day is included in the fee to the main conference (<https://www.tilmeld.dk/thirdnordicchallenges>).

In your application, please include a 250–500 word description of your project and a one-page CV, to be submitted electronically

REIMAGINING NORDEN IN AN EVOLVING WORLD
An Excellence Hub in Research, Education and Public Outreach (ReNEW)

ReNEW (Reimagining Norden in an Evolving World) is a research hub established to enhance cooperation to develop new and path-breaking research about the Nordic region against the background of an increasingly challenging global context. Promoting mobility, exchange, high-level conferences, education, and outreach activities it brings together six Nordic universities with world-wide connections. ReNEW is funded by NordForsk for the six-year period 2018 to 2023.

ReNEW Partners are University of Helsinki, University of Oslo, Södertörn University Stockholm, Aarhus University, Copenhagen Business School, and University of Iceland.
