

Conference release 8 April 2020

Dear colleagues,

Due to the corona virus (covid-19) we are living in exceptional times. We, the conference organisers are closely following how the situation develops and will inform of any possible changes this can cause to the conference.

Right now we continue with planning the next NordILL conference. It will be held in Helsinki, Finland on 21. – 23. October 2020. The Call for Papers is now open for proposals until 1. June 2020. This time we also expect Proposals from the Baltic countries and Russia.

The theme for the conference is Empowering knowledge – Accelerating access. Conference info will be updated to the web pages:

If You have any questions about the Conference, please contact: varkirja@nrl.fi with the title NordILL2020.

Looking forward to meeting you in Helsinki!
